

PART B) What is the running time complexity of your function? Justify

The time complexity of this method is  $O(\log N)$  because as the recursive function continues it keeps fractionalizing the output into smaller and smaller pieces.